

I feel that the FCC is selectively choosing which laws to uphold according to political beliefs which in turn are based on lining their own pockets. The anti-Kerry movie which is actually a free political add for Bush violates everything that I hold dear in America. I fear that we are becoming more like a Communist country with unchecked government propaganda.